QUINCY MEDICAL CENTER'S 22nd ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC RAISES $126K

Quincy, MA (June 24, 2011) – Quincy Medical Center's 22nd annual Golf Classic at the Granite Links Golf Club raised more than $126,000 thanks to a field of generous golfers, supporters and sponsors, including presenting sponsor Tufts Medical Center, platinum corporate sponsor Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo, P.C., host sponsor Granite Links, dinner sponsor attorney George Burke, golden corporate sponsors Eastern Bank, Electro Switch Corp., and many more.

QMC Foundation Board Chairman Tony Agnitti and QMC Interim CEO John N. Kastanis, FACHE thanked all of the sponsors and golfers at a dinner reception and awards ceremony following the tournament. The winning foursome was Eric Cohen, MD, Sean Kenealy, Eric Burt, and Skip Belsy. Second place went to Pat Sharkey, Henry Hong, Darryl Demos and Larry Jenkins of Mintz Levin and third place foursome was Bill Tringali and Dan Almon, of The Claflin Company, and Ron Ceriani and Chris Norton.

Quincy Medical Center is a 196-bed acute care community-teaching hospital, providing the highest quality, most personalized and comprehensive medical and surgical services to patients throughout the South Shore. A private, nonprofit hospital, QMC has played a vital role in the community since 1890, serving the needs of its diverse patient population without exception. Quincy Medical Center is uniquely positioned for the health care system of the future, as it is a high value provider with outcomes at or better than most national quality benchmarks and it delivers this care in a cost efficient manner as one of the lowest cost providers in the region. QMC has a clinical affiliation with Tufts Medical Center.
